

Joseph Ruzznak Elevated To Rank of Eagle Scout

WOODBIDGE — An Eagle Court of Honor was held by Boy Scout Troop 33 in Fellowship Hall of the First Presbyterian Church honoring Joseph Ruzznak.

Walter Kilby, an Eagle Scout, welcomed the parents and guests and conducted the Court of Honor in the absence of his father, Scoutmaster Norman Kilby.

The Invocation was given by Rev. Alex Nemeth, pastor of the church, and Charles Williams, senior patrol leader, led the salute to the flag. He also led the scouts in a candle-lighting ceremony during which they recited the Scout Promise and Law.

Sheldon Bowen, chairman of the troop advancement committee, presented Second Class awards to John Bowers, Robert Jacks, Donald Kraus, Robert Ludwigson, Guy Nemara, Richard Novak, and Thomas Patterson.

A First Class award was presented to Walter Sadowski by John T. Tetley, chairman of the troop committee.

Merit Badges were presented by Wesley Heselberg, institutional representative, to: John Eppensteiner, Walter Sadowski, Charles Williams, Bruce Kilby, John Bowers, Robert Cassidy, Guy Nemara, Richard Novak, Walter Sadowski, and Richard Turner.

Robert Bowen, an Eagle Scout of the Troop, presented Eagle candidate Joseph Ruznak to Gordon Linn, president of Raritan Council, B.S.A., who conducted the Court of Honor.

Fred McElhenny, former Scoutmaster, pinned the Eagle Badge on Scout Ruznak, who in turn presented his mother and father with miniature Eagle pins.

The American Legion Award was presented by Commander Wade Brown of Post 87, Woodbridge, and the Mothers' Auxiliary Award by Mrs. John Eppensteiner, president.

Other guests who spoke were Mayor Frederick M. Adams; William Bresler, District Scout executive; William Kalbhenn, president of United Presbyterian Men, sponsors of the troop; John Tetley, Ralph Gamo, Scoutmaster of Troop 52; Robert Clark and Richard Berg, merit badge counselors.

The Benediction was given by Joseph Thomson, The Mothers' Auxiliary served refreshments.

IMPROVED PARKING FOR CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS: In keeping with their policy of offering customers every convenience possible, Christensen's Department Store and Public Pharmacy have cooperated with Mrs. Batman, owner of the property and paved the parking lot in the rear of their stores. In addition to the blacktop, white lines and bumper guards were also added. Shoppers now have 20% more parking space in the lot. There are no meters and shoppers are welcome to park free while they do their shopping. Employees of both stores have been keeping their own cars off the lot to provide maximum customer parking.

Gift Suggestions for Man Who Just Has Everything

WOODBRIDGE — Christmas gift suggestion for the man who has everything — almost: Buy him (or her, if your friend's a hep woman driver) an auto seat belt. It could mean a really merry Christmas for someone by saving a life!

to prevent all kinds of accidents, the motorist who has everything (except a seat belt, that is) could wind up with nothing but trouble if he gets in a traffic accident," said the National Safety Council.

The Council, a nongovernmental agency organized in 1913, has heartily endorses seat belts at Christmas—or any other time of the year, for that matter.

"Seat belts," it said, "are the No. 1 device now available to reduce the number of traffic deaths and injuries.

"Use of seat belts by every driver—and the day may come when this will be nearer reality—could cut the traffic death toll by 5,000 a year, the number of injuries 60 per cent.

"Wish a friend a truly merry Christmas this year. Give him a life-saving seat belt."
